

The Shean's English sentence test

워드마스터 하이퍼|2000 day36 ~ day42, 2.20

1. Avoid letting daily cares override your heartfelt intuition.
2. People are more likely to attribute a man's success to ability and yours to luck.
3. Science and technology are cumulative, whereas ethics and politics deal with recurring dilemmas.
4. A miser grows rich by seeming poor; an extravagant man grows poor by seeming rich.
5. The omission of good is no less reprehensible[비난 받을만한] than the commission of evil.
6. Remember that if you don't prioritize your life someone else will.
7. Nature thrives on patience; man on impatience.
8. Ice cream is happiness condensed.
9. Doing what has never been done before is intellectually seductive, whether or not we deem it practical.
10. The thirst after happiness is never extinguished in the heart of man.

11. For a person to live well, it is imperative to find the balance of things: not too much, not too less of everything.

12. Opinion is usually something which people have when they lack comprehensive information.

13. Never contend with a man who has nothing to lose.

14. Loss is a significant force that can serve as a catalyst for change.

15. We must be neither cowardly nor rash but courageous.

16. A consistent outlook is inconsistent with reality.

17. Adversities do not make a man frail. They show what sort of man he is.

18. Nicknames stick to people, and the most ridiculous are the most adhesive.

19. Recognizing and admitting fear is the first step to overcoming and neutralizing it.

20. When you see good or bad in your children, you're seeing what you instilled in them after they cleared the womb.

21. Words are too poor and too scant to express the inmost feeling in the heart of man.